April Book Report: Free Choice

1. Choose an AR book from any genre. It must have a minimum 100 pages and be within your reading level.
2. Take the AR test. A score of 70% or higher is needed.
3. Complete an activity from this choice board.
4. Return this page with your activity by the due date.
5. We will share in class the first week of May.

Due: Friday, April 29th

Create a timeline of events from your story. Present in a creative way.	Write a poem about the main events in the story. Share it with the class.	Write a diary that one of the main characters might have kept during the book's events.
Dress up as a character from your book and give a 2 – 3 minute speech telling about yourself as if you were the character.	Make your story into a play. Brainstorm a list of props you would need, design a set, and create a list of characters needed for the play. Share your idea for a play with the class.	Create a Venn diagram comparing and contrasting you with one of the characters.
Write a song that summarizes the story. Share it with the class.	Create a 2 – 3 minute skit, or commercial persuading others to read your book.	Create a crossword puzzle based on your book. It must have at least 10 questions.
